

The Red River Valley School Division Board of Trustees supports activities, which provides students with a balanced exposure to, and understanding of, the political institutions and processes vital to the governance of our country.

No attempt at “undue” political influence by any person or political party will be tolerated within the schools of the Red River Valley School Division.

Cross Reference:
Adoption Date: January 26, 2005	Amendment Date: November 15, 2011; May 12, 2015	Page: 1 of 1